Pleasanton, Texas

Advent

Second Week of Advent

Our Christmas program performances begin this week with our PreK through second grade Angels Thursday evening. We outgrew the parish hall so we relocated the program to Pleasanton ISD Junior High Cafetorium. We hope everyone can join us for this special program beginning at 6:00 pm.

There are only a few more days left to sell Catholic Life tickets. Please turn in unsold and sold tickets as soon as possible. All tickets must be accounted for by Dec. 20. Thank you for participating in this fundraiser!

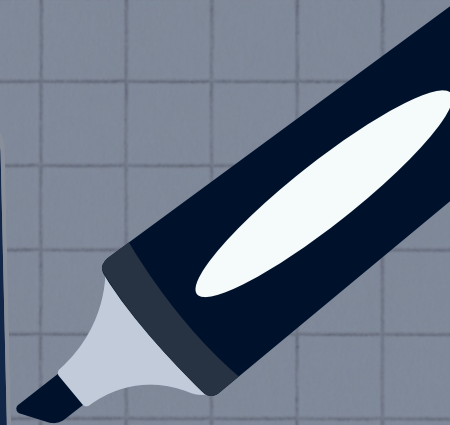

Enjoy a blessed week!

-Tammy Ducote, Principal

Campus News

- Dr. Jason Trial announced the winners of the Chaparral Veterinary Center annual Christmas drawing competition. Winners were: Athena Lugo in kindergarten, Kailey Jo Huizar in first grade, Evelyn Castillo in second grade, Kenedy Nixon in third grade, Rudi Lynn Ballin in fourth grade and Lorelei Jenschke in fifth grade. Special thanks to Dr. and Mrs. Trial for sponsoring the competition and all of the students who participated.
- We had some very special visitors on campus last week. Father Ian introduced to many of our students two Sisters Ana Cecilia and Maria Elena, both daughters of the Holy Spirit, and two men discerning the priesthood in the Archdiocese.

Teacher Spotlight

Mrs. Herrera- First Grade and Guitar Group

Mrs. Herrera is in her fifth year teaching at Our Lady of Grace after teaching for 28 years in public schools. She also leads our guitar group who sings and plays for our school masses, masses in the community and Argent Court residents.

"It is wonderful teaching in a school that embraces the importance of God and Christian values in our daily lives. I've also been blessed with the opportunity to teach guitar to students and share the love of them playing their guitar during mass. I thank God everyday for leading me to Our Lady of Grace."
